

Copyright is owned by the Author of the thesis. Permission is given for a copy to be downloaded by an individual for the purpose of research and private study only. The thesis may not be reproduced elsewhere without the permission of the Author.

The influences of performers and composers on selected violin works of Johannes Brahms

Joanna Lee

300221858

NZSM 596

Supervisors - Dr. Keith Chapin and Dr. Martin Riseley

Master of Musical Arts Exegesis

May 20, 2011

Contents

Acknowledgements	3
Introduction	4
Part
I. Joseph Joachim and Johannes Brahms	5
II. Performer-Composer Relationships in the 19th Century	16
a) Unity of Performer and Composer: Paganini and Vieuxtemps	16
b) Division of Labour: Ferdinand David and Mendelssohn, Joachim and Brahms	19
c) Friendship Circles: Brahms, Joachim, Dietrich, Schumann, and the FAE Sonata	23
III. Joachim's Influence on Brahms's Violin Concerto	28
a) Joachim's Championing of Beethoven's Violin Concerto and Brahms's Relationship to Beethoven	29
b) Joachim's Work with Brahms on Brahms's Violin Concerto	38
c) Joachim's influence on the Violin Concerto
i. Violin Technique	41
ii. Compositional Technique: Interest in Gypsy Styles	43
Conclusion	48
Appendix A	49
Appendix B	53
Bibliography	55

Acknowledgements

I would like to express my immense gratitude toward my primary supervisor, Dr. Keith Chapin. Without his strong words and guidance I would not have been able to complete this exegesis.

I would like to offer special thanks to my co-supervisor and violin teacher, Dr. Martin Riseley for his inspiration, encouragement, support and direction in both writing this exegesis and preparation for my concerts and recitals throughout the years. It is an honour to have a teacher with such great warmth, enthusiasm and musicianship.

Thanks also to Professor Donald Maurice for helping me prepare and train for this project in his special topics class, for his wise words, and kindness.

I am indebted to all my friends and colleagues who have very generously helped me get over rough and tough times, especially Alexa Thomson, Andrew Filmer, Lucy Gijbers, Marion Kirker, Sandy Gmur, Vincent Hardaker, Vivian Szeto, and Zoë Saville Wood.

Last but not least, I gratefully acknowledge God and my family for their unconditional love and immeasurable support. In particular my newfound family in New Zealand who continuously cheered me on; my parents, who have given me strength and perseverance in striving for excellence; and the staff at NZSM, who have always been particularly kind and helpful.