

Copyright is owned by the Author of the thesis. Permission is given for a copy to be downloaded by an individual for the purpose of research and private study only. The thesis may not be reproduced elsewhere without the permission of the Author.

An exegesis presented in partial fulfilment of the requirements for the degree of Master of Fine Arts.

At Massey University,
Wellington, New Zealand.

Kathleen Mary Collier

2014

In lizard years I was 52

In lizard years I was 52
Wearing, Writing, Becoming-Other

This exegesis is about dressing in a sequinned jumpsuit and re-naming myself a lizard, and then what followed.

Acknowledgements

I wish to show my appreciation for Catherine Bagnall, who has taught me throughout my entire time at University, and who introduced me to becoming-other through dress. Much of what I have learned over the last six years has been from her. I am very grateful to Rebecca Sinclair, for always showing her support, and to Marcus Moore, for coaching me through writing. I also thank Massey University and everyone involved in the MFA. Lastly, I thank my parents and friends, not for keeping me sane, but for sticking with me while I was not so (sane).

Contents

Introduction .....	1
Unfolding .....	5
The Creature in Clothing .....	9
Lizard-Writing .....	33
Stirring Stillness .....	39
Talking to Surfaces .....	43
Stitching a Skin .....	45
Concealed in Spectacle .....	49
Undone .....	53
Becoming Worn .....	57
Withdrawal/Renewal .....	65
Surface Displayed .....	71
Emerging/Disappearing .....	77
End(less) .....	81
Reference List .....	85
Bibliography .....	89