ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The author wishes to thank Professor W.V. Candler for his helpful advice in the preparation of this thesis.

He is indebted to Mr R.J. Reid of "Traquair" Station, Outram for helpful discussion on the problems of Drysdale wool production under commercial conditions and Mr K.R.H. Neville and his staff at Overseas Carpets (N.Z.) Ltd., for discussion on the utilisation of Drysdale wool in carpet manufacture.

He is also grateful to Mr R.J. Townsley who suggested the linear programming technique used in Chapter IV, and the Library staff at Massey University College of Manawatu for their assistance in providing references.

This thesis was typed by Mrs C.K. Pickett.

Finally, the author wishes to acknowledge Dr F.W. Dry, for whom the Drysdales are named, for his continued interest in this study.
