

Copyright is owned by the Author of the thesis. Permission is given for a copy to be downloaded by an individual for the purpose of research and private study only. The thesis may not be reproduced elsewhere without the permission of the Author.

O Lord How Long ?
A Revival Movement in New Zealand 1920-1933.

A thesis in partial fulfilment of the requirements for the degree of Master of Arts with Honours in History at
Massey University

Douglas E Ireton
1986

Abbreviations

Bap Tab MinBks	Baptist Tabernacle Minute Books.
NZBTI MinBks	New Zealand Bible Training Institute Minute Books.
NZH	New Zealand Herald.
NZJH	New Zealand Journal of History.
NZPD	New Zealand Parliamentary Debates.
NZMT	New Zealand Methodist Times.

Acknowledgements

There are a number of special debts of gratitude incurred in the preparation of this thesis that I would like to acknowledge. Library and archival staff throughout the country were helpful. Allan Knight went out of his way to assist me and Len Rushbrook was kind enough to grant me time to talk with him. Howard Knight gave me an enlightening and encouraging interview. I was saddened to hear of his death. He seemed a good man.

At Massey many have been good to me. Special thanks must go to John Stenhouse who read much of my work, as did David Thomson, whose comments were always incisive. Once again I acknowledge my great appreciation for my Supervisor, Peter Lineham, who always does more than anyone has the right to expect.

Finally, to Hugh O'Connell for typing the bulk of the text and for the use of word processor and home, and to Ernst, thank you. Although I have received much help in this thesis any faults are mine alone.