Thank you to all of you who made this possible.

Thank you to my parents. Mum, I would not have even studied without your loving push in the right direction. Thanks for all the pep talks and sage advice to keep me on track. Dad, thanks for chatting theory and for all the distracting movies. You guys are amazing.

Thank you to my mentors and supervisors, Associate Professor Kingsley Baird and Dr Martin Patrick, for your wise words and consistent support.

Thank you to the MFA Mother Ship, who taught, guided, gave much needed feedback, and supportively cajoled us all the way. A special thanks to Julieanna for letting me cry on your shoulder, and a big shout out to Maddie for teaching me about when to use (or not use) a plinth (and much more).

Thanks to the MFA crew. You are all great humans. We made it!

And thank you to Rhyllie for putting up with me, for actually being interested, and for knowing about punctuation.
