Acknowledgements

I would like to express my sincere gratitude toward both of my supervisors, Inbal Megiddo and Professor Donald Maurice. Inbal has been a committed and inspiring cello teacher over the past three years, and has offered much support, expertise and wisdom in preparing me for my recitals and for this exegesis.

Many thanks to Donald for his commitment to my research and for his attention to detail. I would not have been able to properly complete this exegesis without his guidance.

Many thanks also to my family and to my husband Alaister Straka for their continued love and support; and to my friends, in particular Thomas Nikora and my duo partner Andrew Atkins, both of whom have often stood in at the last minute to accompany me.
