A C K N O W L E D G E M E N T S

The Author wishes to thank Professor W.V. Candler for his advice and encouragement during the course of this study. He has also benefited from helpful discussions with Miss Michelle Dawe and Mr A.C. Glenday.

Special thanks are due to Mr Samuel Kanyoko of the Kenya Coffee Marketing Board and to the Director of Research, Coffee Research Foundation, Nairu, Kenya, for supplying data and useful information on the coffee industry. The Author is also indebted to Miss M.G. Campbell and her library staff for promptly procuring reference material that has been used in this work. He also wishes to express his grateful appreciation to Mr J.O. Wilson of the General Assembly Library, Wellington, for granting permission to use facilities in the Library.

This study was done when the Author was on study leave from the Department of Agriculture, Kenya, and is grateful to the Director of Agriculture for making this arrangement possible. He is also grateful to the Kenya National Fund and Dalgety (E.A.) for providing generous financial assistance.
